

Facilities available to citizens for obtaining information.

[Section 4(1) (b) (xv)]

Members of the public can offer suggestions or representations through suggestion box placed on Acharya Nagarjuna University campus or through e-mail to the Registrar/Vice – Chancellor or by post or through press. Public can also seek information required through Query-Reply mechanism available in the University website or through the channels provided by Right to Information Act. A citizen charter is declared and implemented in the University.